City of Stonecrest Extends Closure Through Wednesday Due to Severe Weather

- WHAT: Out of an abundance of caution, the City of Stonecrest will remain closed on Wednesday due to continued inclement weather conditions. All administrative buildings and operations will be suspended to prioritize the safety of staff and residents. City officials will continue to provide updates on weather conditions and operational changes via its official website and social media channels.
- WHEN: Wednesday, Jan. 22, 2025.
- WHERE: Stonecrest City Hall, Browns Mill Recreation Center, and all city-owned parks will be closed.
- WHY: Sub-freezing temperatures are expected to impact the roadways, our region remains under a cold weather advisory, and Gov. Brian Kemp has declared this weather event a state of emergency.

Residents are urged to:

- Avoid non-essential travel and stay indoors as much as possible.
- Protect exposed pipes and ensure homes are adequately heated.
- Stay informed by following official updates from the City of Stonecrest and trusted weather sources.
